NIC DISTRICT CENTRE JODHPUR

Awarded for SUGAM PROJECT

The SUGAM Project: a Government to Citizen (G2C) special from Jodhpur district in Rajasthan has received a special appreciation award at recently concluded Computer Society of India- Nihilent e-Governance Awards 2008-09, district category. The award was given at Pune at the 44th Annual CSI Convention evening at a glittering ceremony by CSI President S. Mahalingam. State Informatics Officer & Sr. Technical Director NIC Rajasthan Indu Gupta received the award .

SUGAM –was set up by the District Collectorate at NIC Jodhpur Centre to provide multifaceted services to the citizens through a single window which included domicile, SC/SC, State and Centre levelcertificate, Ration card etc. The project has been developed by H.S Gehlot DIO Jodhpur & TD and Ravi Mathur DIA Jodhpur. All the reports and certificates are printed in Hindi . It has proven to be a boon for the citizens of the district. Two new options : permission letter for birth – death certificate and renewal of arms licence has been added in the previous years. Indu Gupta informed that “ the number of beneficiaries under SWS is increasing every day. The efforts of NIC Jodhpur is indeed laudable. This software will now be implemented at all the districts of the state.” The appreciation comes as a pat on the back of NIC which has been spearheading many important e-governance projects in the state.
